A Note from Dorothy Yoerger, Editor

Further introductions to HSS:

Etha Hutchcroft, a retired dietitian who was Director of the Food Service for the Ames Public Schools. Etha has spent a "lifetime" volunteering, especially at Iowa State University and her church, Collegiate Presbyterian Church. Etha is a graduate of ISU, and received the Alumni Medal in 2001. She was a member of the Memorial Union Board for 27+ years, and received their Medallion. Etha is widowed and the mother of 3 children, all living in the Midwest.

Certainly not new to HSS is Jerry Sell: Jerry is a graduate of ISU in Animal Science and previously was at the University in Manitoba and North Dakota State at Fargo before returning to ISU where he remained for 24+ years. Jerry previously served on the HSS Foundation, and has a deep interest in the welfare of the elderly. He volunteers at Rيمان Gardens and Mary Greeley Medical Center. Jerry is married and has one son in Fargo and grandchildren in So. Carolina and Minnesota.

Gene Dougherty retired from his Tax and Accounting Business but continues as a Financial Advisor. Previous to having his own business Gene worked for a CPA firm for 6 years, and was employed at ISU for 4 years. Gene has been on the YSS Board and currently serves on the YSS Foundation. Gene is married and has 3 children, 1 living in the Ames area, another in New York City and the third in Singapore.

AND, new to the Foundation Board: Robert Bacon who has Bacon Funeral Homes and Crematories in Nevada and Maxwell, as well as the Camelot Theater in Nevada.

Robert is a graduate of Vennard College (Oskaloosa) and Worsham College of Mortuary Science. Robert plays the cello and sings in a male quartet "3 Docs and A Digger". Robert is married and has 4 children, two in the Des Moines area and two at home.
